It's no secret that I love the Wild Cards series-Knaves over Queens is the 26th entry and it is enjoyable, though I felt things slowed down a little in the middle. I think part of the problem stemmed from the fact that there seemed to be less editorial control-some of these stories really did not mesh together well at all, and the resultant disjointed reading experience really jangled my nerves.

Knaves Over Queens (Wild Cards, #26) by George R.R. Martin
