An LLC resolution to open a business bank account is a document that clearly shows the bank who has the authority to start an account on behalf of a limited liability company. Your bank may require a resolution if your Articles of Organization or operating agreement don't specifically authorize someone to open an account.

An LLC resolution is a document describing an action taken by the managers or owners of a company, with a statement regarding the issue that needs to be voted on. This does not need to be a complicated document, and need only include necessary information. By state law, corporations are required to prepare these resolutions.
