The Wise Men Of The

The Magi were both real and symbolic. As real men, the three kings confirmed ancient prophecies about Jesus being the Messiah, and as symbols, they showed that he came to save all people, rich and poor, learned or unschooled, from anywhere in the world.

The Three Kings - Who Were the 3 Wise Men?

The wise men also knew that this person was the One to be worshiped (Matthew 2:2). In his questioning of the chief priests and scribes, Herod shows that he knew that the real King of the Jews was to be the Messiah (Matthew 2:4). As a Jew by adoption, why did he not actually want to worship the Messiah?

The Wise Men and the Star | Creation Today

In fact, the wise men came days, months, or possibly even years later. That is why Matthew 2:11 says the wise men visited and worshiped Jesus in a house, not at the stable. We know that the magi were wise men from "the East," most likely Persia, or modern-day Iran. This means the wise men traveled 800 to 900 miles to see the Christ child.

The magi, better known as the three wise men, are some of the most well-known figures in the Bible. Thanks to the role they play in the traditional Christmas story as mysterious visitors who bring gifts to the newborn Jesus, they are probably more familiar to the general public than far more important New Testament figures, such as the apostle Paul or John the Baptist.

The Magi - Bible Odyssey

I believe the Magi in the Bible (or wise men) are one of those stories. I recently wrote a post about the gifts of the Magi that can be read here: Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh - Understanding The Wise Men's gifts . Since I wrote that post I thought it would also be neat to write on the topic of the wise men.
